

Press release

Negotiations of the MCH Group Ltd

Basel, 8 July 2020

As the MCH Group Ltd. has already communicated on several occasions, it is currently considering a capital increase involving new investors. In this connection, we have among several interested parties also negotiated with LUPA Systems, the American holding company founded in 2019 by James Murdoch, which is involved inter alia in the event, technology and media sector and in the field of sustainability.

The negotiations have not yet been concluded. The MCH Group will provide information as soon as this is the case. Until then, it will not be providing any further information in this respect.
